INTRODUCTION

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society Collection was donated by the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, Eta Chapter, in care of Ann Waddle. Access to this collection may be permitted for the purposes of personal and scholarly research. The Montgomery County Archives requires that the following credit line be used in all publications to identify that the image or document used is from its holdings: Courtesy of the Montgomery County Archives. ## SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

In 2016, the local chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society donated this collection to the Montgomery County Archives. This collection includes membership paperwork, financial records, annual yearbooks, and scrapbooks for the Eta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society.

Based in Clarksville, the Eta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society officially formed in 1938 as an organization for outstanding female educators in Montgomery, Stewart, Cheatham, Dickson, Houston, and Humphreys Counties. Dr. Julia Hodgson, a professor of education at Peabody College for Teachers, organized the Eta Chapter in Clarksville. By 1962, the Eta Chapter had grown to seventy members; the Alpha Chi Chapter was in turn formed to accommodate thirty-five of those members.

Membership in the Delta Kappa Gamma Society was based on invitation only through recommendations by active members. After the annual initiation ceremony, members participated in meetings, scholastic development, and projects. The organization offered graduate scholarships for continued study. The Eta and Alpha Chi Chapters worked together to provide an annual grant for a high school senior girl pursuing a teaching career. This grant rotated among the counties each year. Members also advocated for equal pay and teacher recruitment.

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society Collection contains records dating from 1936 to 2002. Membership paperwork combined with meeting minutes provide an array of information about the female teaching community in Clarksville and the surrounding area during that period.

This collection is arranged based on material type and date. Within the Membership Records & Papers series, the documents have been further organized alphabetically by last name. Paper clips and staples were removed from papers during processing. A political campaign sign, "Elect Sam Boaz Judge Law & Equity Court," was weeded from the collection based on its lack of association with the rest of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society Collection; it has been moved to the Political Advertisements Collection. All photographs have been removed from the scrapbooks and housed in the Archives Photograph Collection.
