INTRODUCTION

The Randy Rubel Collection was donated by Randall Rubel. The collection contains approximately 1500 items arranged into 45 boxes. Access to this collection may be permitted for the purposes of personal and scholarly research. The Montgomery County Archives requires that the following credit line be used in all publications to identify that the image or document used is from its holdings: Courtesy of the Montgomery County Archives. Specific citation of where the image or document is located (collection, box, folder, etc.) should be made in an acknowledgements section, footnote, or bibliography.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Beginning in 2004, Randall “Randy” Rubel donated items in this collection to the Montgomery County Archives. This collection includes an assortment of papers, books, magazines, scrapbooks, maps, and photographs. An avid collector, retired firefighter, and Civil War reenactor, Randy Rubel compiled research documenting the Clarksville Fire Department, local cemeteries, Civil War, genealogy, and local history (such as the 1937 and 1970s floods). The collection features items belonging to Rubel relatives, including the Trotter and Rubel families. The military-related research and personal items reflect the military service of the Rubel family.

The collection is a rich source of information on local Confederate history. In 1893, the Forbes Bivouac Memorial Club of Clarksville helped raise funds for a Confederate monument in Greenwood Cemetery. Members sold a booklet, War Songs of the South as Sung by the Forbes Bivouac Memorial Club of Clarksville, Tenn. An original copy of this booklet is housed in this collection. A program from the unveiling on October 25, 1893 as well as an 1893 book further detail the construction and erection of the Confederate Monument. Other research files and newspaper clippings show Rubel’s involvement registering local Confederate graves with the Sons of Confederate Veterans, preserving Fort Defiance, and participating in Civil War reenactments.

Another highlight of the collection is the 1930s Boy Scout memorabilia. William “Billy” E. Rubel, father of Randy Rubel, was a dedicated Boy Scout. In 1935, he was chosen to represent his troop at the National Boy Scout Jamboree. Unfortunately, due to the threat of polio, the 1935 event was canceled. Billy Rubel eventually earned a second opportunity to attend the rescheduled National Boy Scout Jamboree held in Washington, D.C., from June 30 to July 9, 1937. A newspaper clipping, “Scouts Leave for Jamboree, Are Given Big Send-Off,” discusses the train journey that Billy Rubel and his fellow scouts embarked on to get to the jamboree. Correspondence, including postcards and letters, between Billy Rubel and his mother document the excitement of the trip as well as daily life back home in Clarksville. Photographs taken by Billy Rubel provide snapshots of the 1937 National Boy Scout Jamboree.

During the processing of this collection, some items were weeded and others moved to other topical collections. These items included Purple and Gold editions and political advertisements. Photographs, slides, negatives, and rolls of film are housed in the Archives

Photograph Collection. Randy Rubel continues to donate items to the Archives; these items will be housed with the existing boxes as space allows.
