Damage Information

Tenn. Code Ann. §67-5-606(c); In the case of damage as a result of a disaster declared by the president of the United States, the annual assessment of commercial and industrial tangible personal property that is destroyed, demolished, or substantially damaged as a result of being located in a county included in the presidential declaration shall be prorated as otherwise provided in subsection (a), for the actual time the qualifying personal property is not replaced or restored notwithstanding that such personal property is replaced or restored by September 1, if the total time the qualifying personal property is not replaced or restored exceeds thirty (30) days. The owner must apply for this relief to the assessor of property by September 1 of the following year using a form approved by the director of the state division of property assessments. The owner shall provide the assessor of property a listing of the destroyed, demolished, or substantially damaged personal property for which the proration is sought. This subsection (c) shall not take effect as to any particular county or municipality unless approved by a two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) vote of its governing body following the disaster being declared by the president of the United States.
