VOTERS

From A1

Amanda Joslin, the Administrator of Elections for Montgomery County, said the Election Commission is hoping for a smooth day.

"The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. for the 38 precincts across the county," Joslin said. "Voters are required to present a Tennessee or federally issued photo ID."

Schools will be closed on Election Day.

Joslin said voters can anticipate lines at the precincts.

"There are always lines for Presidential elections," Joslin said. "Once you've completed the ballot, verify it on the VVPAT, Verified Voter Paper Trail, before pushing the red cast vote button."

After the votes are counted on Election Day, the results will be posted on Mainstreetclarksville.com members, teachers and fellow members of the Board CMCSS is the best school board system in the State of Tennessee.

"We have been doing things over the last 20 years that other boards wish they could do," Garland said. "But the bottom line we have done it because of you sitting out there and the person [Dr. Jean Luna Vedder] that is sitting beside us here and the teachers that's sitting over there. Y'all make it happen. Continue to do what you do because you're doing it you are doing a great job."
